UI PRESIDENT

Barbara J. Wilson

President
University of Iowa

Dr. Barbara J. Wilson is the 22nd president of the University of Iowa. Her leadership priorities are focused on people, and in her first year, the university finalized a new five-year strategic plan, launched transformative faculty recruitment and retention programs, and, through the recently inaugurated First Gen Hawks program, saw increased retention rates among students who are first-in-family to attend college.

President Wilson and her development team have raised over $400 million to support the university, including the largest gift since the institution's founding in 1847.

President Wilson earned a bachelor's degree in journalism and master's and PhD degrees in communication arts from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. She came to Iowa having served as the executive vice president/vice president for academic affairs of the University of Illinois System. Prior to that, she served in several administrative positions, including interim chancellor, at the University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign, where she was a member of the communication faculty for 21 years. She was also a professor of communication at the University of California, Santa Barbara, and the University of Louisville. President Wilson's research focuses on the social and psychological effects of the media, particularly on youth.

President Wilson's spouse, John Lammers, is a retired professor of communication. They have two grown daughters.

UI DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS CHAIR

Beth Goetz

Henry B. and Patricia B. Tippie
Interim Director of Athletics Chair

Beth Goetz was announced as Henry B. and Patricia B. Tippie Director of Athletics Chair at the University of Iowa on Jan. 18, 2024, after serving five months as UI's interim director. Goetz joined the Iowa athletics staff as Deputy Director of Athletics and Chief Operating Officer (COO) on Sept. 7, 2022. Under her leadership as interim director, several teams and studentathletes enjoyed athletic and academic success.

Seven teams advanced to postseason competition, including women's wrestling winning a national championship and women's basketball finishing as national runners-up for a second consecutive season. Iowa's women's soccer and basketball teams won their respective Big Ten Tournament, football captured the Big Ten West Division with 10 victories, while men's wrestling place fifth nationally and men's basketball advanced to the NIT Round of 16.

The 2023-24 women's basketball season got off to a historic start with the memorable "Crossover at Kinnick" event that saw a record 55,646 fans attend and help raise approximately $250,000 for the University of Iowa Stead Family Children's Hospital. Consensus National Player of the Year Caitlin Clark led the Hawkeyes to 34 wins -- equaling the most wins in conference history -- and sellout crowds at every home game and nearly every road contest.

In the classroom, a combined 282 student-athletes earned Big Ten Academic All-Big Ten accolades, while 340 earned Dean's List and/or President's List honors in 2023-24.

Goetz joined the Iowa athletics staff from Ball State University, where she had served as Director of Athletics since May, 2018. At Ball State, she directly supervised 19 Division I Intercollegiate sports teams, all head coaches, and the senior athletics department professional staff. Goetz previously served as Minnesota's Deputy Athletics Director from 2013-15 and interim Athletics Director during the 2015-16 season.

Ball State won 10 Mid-American Conference championships during the time Goetz served as athletics director, including seven during the 2021-22 athletics campaign, the most since 1999-2000. Goetz also guided Ball State to strong marks in the Reese and Jacoby Trophy standings, which honors the top men's and women's athletics programs in the MAC, respectively. The Cardinals placed third in the Reese Trophy standings in 2021-22, their best finish since taking second in 2013. In addition, Ball State reached heights never achieved in the classroom, including back-to-back years with a 90 percent Graduation Success Rate (GSR) and the highest department GPAs on record.

Among the first projects Goetz tackled at Ball State was the creation of a five-year strategic plan titled, Onward, which was created prior to 2019. During her tenure Goetz also hired eight head coaches, launched the NIL initiative Ball You and as a member of the President's Cabinet served on several key campus committees. Goetz' fundraising acumen was on full display while at Ball State, producing increases in sport specific giving and the completion of numerous capital projects including the university's $15 million Scheumann Family Indoor Practice Facility.

Revenue generation strategies were highlighted by an increase in ticket sales across all sports and a revamped concessions agreement.

In addition to her previous role as an administrator, Goetz has been selected for national leadership duties. Goetz was named to the NCAA Competition Oversight Committee in 2018 and served as vice chair of the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Committee in 2021. She was named by Women Leaders in College Sports as the 2022 NCAA Division I FBS Nike Executive of the Year and was recognized by the Indianapolis Business Journal (IBJ) as one of the publications 2021 Women of Influence.

Prior to arriving at Ball State, Goetz was the chief operating officer/senior woman administrator at the University of Connecticut from 2016-18. She served as Minnesota's Deputy Athletics Director from 2013-15 and the interim athletics director during the 2015-16 year. She was the associate athletics director at Butler University from 2008-13 following a 13-year stint at the University of Missouri-St. Louis, where she was an assistant women's soccer coach (1996), head women's soccer coach (1997-2008) and assistant athletics director/senior woman administrator (2001-08). Goetz was inducted into the UMSL Sports Hall of Fame in 2014.

During her college career Goetz was an accomplished Division I student-athlete, playing soccer at Clemson University. She earned All-America recognition at Brevard College (N.C.), where she was inducted into the college's Hall of Fame in 2017. Goetz earned an associate of arts degree from Brevard in 1994 and a Bachelor of Arts degree from Clemson in 1996. She earned her master's degree from the University of Missouri-St. Louis in 2000.
